

Have You Heard?

by Dorothy McCain Elsenius

The reception for retiring Vista School teacher, Mrs. Verona Harris, is being held this afternoon, from 4 to 6:30 p.m. at the school, and everyone is reminded not to forget the event.

Mrs. Harris has taught in Albany for 23 years, and at Vista School for the past 22. She will leave behind many friends, and we wish her well in her retirement.

Congratulations to Alexander Krem of Ordway Street, and George Hunter of Portland Avenue, who have both passed the 1972 Spring Bar Examinations, according to word from St. Mary's College High School.

And bouquets and congratulations to Albany's Del Wisenor, who has been chosen to manage the El Cerrito Chamber of Commerce.

Del, a very well-known community organizer and worker in Albany should be excellent in the position, as he has always had the best of public relations, and loves people and knows just how to handle them—diplomatically.

We hear that someone really "cooled off" Jack Dempster last weekend at the Junior Chamber of Commerce State Convention.

Someone, accidentally or on purpose, pushed Jack into the Oakland Hilton Hotel's pool—and everyone thought it a good joke—until they found out that poor Jack couldn't swim. He was rescued by two stalwart Jaycees, and, after reviving, showed his good spirit by forgiving everyone. Maybe he'd better start taking swimming lessons in his spare time—be prepared, Jack!

The annual picnic for the Altar Boys of St. Ambrose Church was held last Friday, May 12, at the Standard Oil Rod & Gun Club, with Sue Jensen and Mrs. George Young in charge of facility arrangements.

Pastor, Father Thomas McCullough was in charge of weather arrangements, and the day was bright, sunny and warm. The delicious and plentiful food was prepared and served by Mrs. Joseph Delaney and her crew of "devoted mothers."

Athletic events and games rounded out the activities in which the boys competed for prizes donated by 1000 Oaks Hardware, Safeway Stores, and Forrest Henderson, manager of the Frances Apartments.

A most enjoyable day was had by all.

Local residents will be glad to hear that John and Mary Pleich, and Flowerland, are still with us. Rumor had it that the property would be sold to a developer, but the deal "fell through" and Flowerland and the Pleichs will still be in Albany.

Mrs. Robert Sena, a member of St. Ambrose Church, was honored on Mother's Day as the Salsian "Mother of the Year."

The Forensic Club of Salsian High School conferred the title on Bernice for being an "ever-

Coach Needed

The Albany Bobcats Pop Warner football team will have its first practice on August 1. The team has been entered in the North Bay League, and will have a schedule of 4 home games as well as 5 "away" games.

The biggest problem the Bobcats have right now is the lack of a Head Coach. Anyone interested in the position is asked to contact Bill Nash, Albany High School athletic coach.

The Head Coach should be someone who is willing to work with Pop Warner youngsters at least 2 hours a day, and willing to coach at the games which will be held on Saturday and Sunday during the season. The rate of pay will be the same as for Little League Coaches (?).

It is imperative that the coaching staff for Pop Warner Football be organized as soon as possible, so they will be ready when practice begins in August.

Interested persons are asked to contact Bill Nash, at 525-1131, or Del Wisenor, 525-2640. Wisenor is president of the newly formed organization.

Tree Replacement

The Albany Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors has instructed its secretary to contact the City to find out where the responsibility lies for replacement of Solano Avenue trees and plants broken as a result of vandalism and accidents.

Chamber Directors have suggested acquiring trees of the same variety and age for replacement, to be held at a nursery until needed. Thus, the stock on hand will be growing at the same rate as the Solano Avenue trees, and will be the same size when used as replacements, to keep a continuity in the appearance of the street.

Mother Honored On 80th Birthday

Mrs. San (Crocifissa) Colacurcio was honored at a champagne dinner, hosted by her six children, on the occasion of her 80th birthday.

The dinner was held in the home she and her first husband, the late John Barassi, built for themselves on Evelyn Avenue in 1910, and where all her children were born.

Some years later the Barassis purchased a 50 by 100 foot lot at the corner of Portland and Evelyn, for $450, and moved their house there, and finally adding three more rooms to the original three.

The children remember their family home as a place where Albany police were frequently entertained. While the policemen danced in their basement, the Barassi children would watch for a light on Albany Hill, which was the signal that the police were needed.

Ten years after the death of her first husband, who died in 1934 at the age of 44, Mrs. Barassi was married to Sam Colacurcio, a widower with 17 children, 12 of whom were living, and they moved to Martinez. She lived there until two years ago, when her second husband died and she moved back to her Albany home, which had been rented during the 26 years she lived in Martinez.

Mrs. Colacurcio is past president of the Regina Helena Club in Albany, a group she helped organize and named for the Queen of Italy. She was a member of the Martinez Senior Citizens, the Druids, and the Berkeley Lodge of Sons of Italy. She is also a staunch Democrat.

Among the gifts she received from her children was a ring containing the birthstones of all her children. Children of the honor guest include: Pat (Mrs. George Anderson) of El Cerrito; Olga (Mrs. Dale Miner), Antioch; Helen (Mrs. John Cantissani), El Cerrito; Lucille (Mrs. Tony Mendolari), Sunnyvale; Art Barassi, San Pablo, and Tony Barassi, Albany.

Tony Barassi was a member of the first graduating class at Herbert Hoover High School in Albany, in 1936. He was class president of the group, which numbered 11, and only two boys. Mrs. Colacurcio also has 11 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

'Del' Wisenor C of C Manager

Del Wisenor

Delmar "Del" E. Wisenor, long-time Albany resident, has been selected as the new manager of the El Cerrito Chamber of Commerce.

A graduate of Oakland High School, Wisenor also attended the University of California. He has a long career in sales and promotion work in industry. His last position was as sales manager for a transfer and storage company.

Del's participation in community activities is well-known and impressive. An avid sports fan, he has been active with the Oakland and Berkeley Industrial Athletic Associations, and the National Industrial Recreation Association, where he served as a member of speakers' panels at nation-wide conventions.

He served for approximately 8 years as president of Albany's Little League, and is still a member of the Board of Directors. He is also president of Albany's new Pop Warner football organization.

A former member of the Albany Parks & Recreation Commission, Wisenor was also a member of the California Park & Recreation Society. He has been a member of the Albany Civil Service Commission for the last four years, serving as the appointee of Mayor Joe Carlevaro.

He was also an active member of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, and headed up their San Pablo Avenue Street Lighting project.

Wisenor is also affiliated with the Albany Eagles, Bayview Aerie 2323, and is a charter member of the organization; the Albany Lions Club, currently serving as 1st vice-president, and is the present president of the Albany Homeowners and Taxpayers Association.

He and his wife, Theresa, make their home on Talbot Avenue in Albany. Theresa, head teller for the Bank of California in Berkeley, is a bowling enthusiast, and is president of the Woman's 600 Club in Alameda County.

The new manager will assume his duties with the El Cerrito Chamber of Commerce on June 1, replacing Bettianne Flynn, who resigned from the position in March.

Council To Ask Public's OK on P&R General Plan

The Albany City Council has set a date for a public hearing to get the public's feelings on their adoption and implementation of the recently reviewed Parks and Recreational General Plan.

The public is invited to attend a hearing, to be held at part of the Council's June 5th meeting, to voice their opinions concerning the plan before Council members give their final approval to the City's adoption of the Plan, as recommended by the Park and Recreation Commission.

In other action at Monday night's meeting, Council members adopted Resolution 72-31, appointing Fernando Camacho as maintenance man in the Albany Street Dept., and Resolution No. 72-32, opposing proposed legislation which would allow the annexation of a city without its consent.

Ordinance No. 72-05, an emergency "freezing" construction in certain areas of Albany Hill (see last week's issue for particulars), was also introduced and adopted. The freeze will be in effect for 4 months from the date of adoption (May 15), until amended or repealed.

A letter from Camille Coons of 800 Solano Ave., thanking the Council for their action on her request for the installation of a light signal at Pierce and Solano, was read and filed, and correspondence from Bryan and Mary Pfaffenberger, 906 Madison St., complaining of the noise generated by the City Street sweeper in their residential area during the early morning hours, was referred to the Engineering Dept.

The City Attorney was instructed to prepare the necessary resolution in regards to the installing of a stop sign at Garfield and Masonic Aves., which Council deemed necessary for the control of traffic in the area.

A verbal report from the Chief of Police and the City Administrator, recommending approval of Mohamed S. Abdullah for an off-sale beer and wine license for 731 Buchanan St., was accepted by the Council and approval was given. The Mayor also requested a written communication from the Chief of Police "for the files."

Under "the good of the City," Councilman Richard Clark requested the Council to instruct the City Administrator and the City Attorney to prepare applications for federal funds to implement the Parks and Recreation General Plan, now up for adoption, "to get the wheels turning," and be prepared to submit them as soon as possible after the adoption of the Plan.

Nell Havlik of Taft Street commended the Council on their action of last week, freezing Albany Hill. He also asked that the freeze area include the "oak forest" at the end of Jackson St. The Council agreed to hold this request over for one week to give them time to visit the area and study the request. During the discussion, Council members indicated a fear that requests of this type could make the situation more complicated than ever for hill property owners.

Bill Rutherford and Ron Butler, business representatives for operating engineers in Alameda and Contra Costa County, commended Vince Nicora for his operations at the Albany Landfill, noting that in their estimation, it was the cleanest and best managed of all the landfills they had come in contact with, and that rumors to the contrary were not true.

Senior Division Opens Saturday

The Senior Division of Albany Little League will hold their opening day games beginning at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, May 20, at Memorial Park. First game will feature the Albany Foster Freeze Phils vs. the Padres.

The Astros will face the Mets at 12 noon, and at 2:30 p.m. the Colts will play the Red Legs. League President Jim Scoggins has invited Albany's Mayor, Joe Carlevaro, to assist with the opening ceremonies.

Senior Division games are played each Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, beginning at 6 p.m. Saturday games are scheduled for 10 a.m. and 1 p.m., except on Opening Day.

A refreshment booth is open during all games, and a bake sale will also be held on Opening Day.

Navy Comedy

"Misier Roberts," the rowdy, lusty comedy classic about a shipload of Navy men and their despotic skipper, will ring up the 8:30 p.m. curtain Friday, May 19, and run every Friday and Saturday night through June 24, at the Contra Costa Civic Theater, 951 Pomona, El Cerrito.

James Crabb, last seen in COCT's "Cactus Flower," assumes the role of Lieutenant Roberts, heading a cast of 15 men and one woman. Others include Clint Weaver as Ensign Pulver; Earl Link as the schizophrenic skipper, and Wayne Howe, the compassionate "Doc." Kathleen Flynn, the lone woman in the show, plays the part of the eye-catching Navy nurse.

For reservations and group information, please call 524-9132.

Political Pot-Pourri . . .

John Duncan and William McKenna, Albany members of the Alameda County Republican Central Committee, have been named City Chairmen to elect Dave Schuh to Congress from the 7th District.

In announcing the appointment, Alameda County Chairman John Healy stated: "Dave Schuh has the best chance of beating Ron Dellums in November, and we are putting together the broadest possible coalition of citizens, Republicans and Democrats alike, who want Albany to be represented in Washington, D.C., by a responsible voice."

President Frederick R. Duda has announced that the Oakland League for Responsible Government has overwhelmingly endorsed the candidacy of Joseph L. Bort for County of Alameda Supervisor, 4th District.

The League has also endorsed the re-election of Judge Howard L. Schwartz to the Oakland-Piedmont Municipal Court.

Robert L. Nehls and Marty Webb have been named Albany-North Berkeley co-chairmen of the Citizens for Hannaford Committee, to aid Peter Hannaford, candidate for the Republican nomination in the 7th Congressional District.

Berkeley City Councilman Tom McLaren and Jenny Wolfard are co-chairmen for Berkeley.

The Sponsoring Committee to elect Stephan N. Sestanovich, Democrat, to Congress from the 7th District, has opened headquarters in the Leamington Hotel, 379 19th Street, Oakland.

Robert F. Atkinson, Piedmont civic and business leader, has been named finance chairman for Craig Bull, Republican candidate for Congress in the 7th District. Atkinson is past president of the Oakland Real Estate Board and the Alameda County Taxpayers Association. Arthur H. Breed, Jr., former state senator, is campaign chairman.

Tom Miles, president of the Emery-Oaks Republican Assembly, and in his 4th year of distinguished service as a member of the California Republican Assembly, has announced his candidacy for nomination for State Senator, 11th District, a position now held by Senator Nicholas C. Petris.

Republican Craig Bull, investment counselor and former insurance executive and FBI agent, has announced his candidacy for the 7th Congressional District seat now held by Ronald Dellums, with a 12-point program calling for homeowner tax relief, corrections for local unemployment, opposition to forced school busing, and assurance of freedom of information for the communications media.

Democrat John J. Miller, two-term incumbent Assemblyman for the 17th District, is being challenged by Daniel P. Devlin, Republican candidate for the State Assembly.

Devlin, a 28-year-old corporate finance executive, is considered by many to be the strongest candidate Republicans have ever fielded in this overwhelmingly Democratic District, which includes Albany, North and West Berkeley, Emeryville, and North and West Oakland.

Joseph P. Bort, former Berkeley City Councilman, is seeking re-election to his present position as Supervisor of the 4th District, Alameda County.

"I believe a man's record of achievement in office still means something to the voters," Bort said recently. "If I am right, then my efforts and achievements should warrant the continued support of the people in my district."

The Fourth Supervisorial District covers Albany, Berkeley, Piedmont, a large segment of the Oakland Hill area, and all of Castro Valley.

Vossa E. Wysinger, candidate for the Republican nomination for the 7th Congressional District, has appointed Attorney John Adams, Jr., of Berkeley, as vice-chairman of his campaign committee.

Attorney Adams is a former Nebraska State Legislator, President of the South and West Berkeley Black Citizens Alliance, vice-president of the Concerned Berkeley Citizens, and a member of the Alameda County Republican League.

Congressman Ronald V. Lums' campaign for re-election will be the theme of a Victory Extravaganza featuring nationally known singers and actors, at 8 p.m., Saturday, May 20, in the Richmond Auditorium.

Appearing as MC will be Gregg Morris, star of "Mission Impossible," and Richard Roundtree, star of "Shaft," is scheduled to appear in the afternoon.

Bill Withers, who recorded "Grandma's Hands," and "Ain't No Sunshine," and a top Motown group will brighten the extravaganza.

Tickets at $5 each are available at all Ticketron outlets: City, Reed's Record, Tapas, Tune, Les & Joe's in Richmond, Billy Williams' Men's Shop in Berkeley, Al's Men's Shop in Oakland, and all Black Style stores in Richmond, Berkeley and Oakland.

Timely quote from the Bayview Bulletin: "He who blows his back adds to the world's pollution!"

You can't keep our good Albany people down—and it's nice to see those who have been on the sick list back in circulation, including Bill Garren, who looked as chipper as ever at yesterday's Chamber of Commerce meeting. May Johnson, although still taking it a little easy, is also back to work and attending meetings again.

Starting time will be 8 p.m. on Friday, May 19 and Saturday, May 20.

Teen Helpers Needed

No job this summer? How about a volunteer job that pays off in the personal satisfaction of helping people, plus valuable work experience, asks Mrs. Roe Gruber, youth director at the Berkeley Red Cross.

There are plenty of places where help is urgently needed, and youth between the ages of 12 and 20 are being interviewed at the Red Cross now for placement in community agencies this summer, she says.

Applications will be accepted until June 16, at the Berkeley Chapter of the American Red Cross, 2116 Allston Way. For application blanks and an interview call 845-1430.

Volunteer opportunities open include: teacher aides at child care centers and at the King School for the mentally retarded, helping with the recreation program at the Cerebral Palsy

GOP Candidates To Voice Views

With the California primaries in June rapidly nearing, voters will be offered their final opportunity to evaluate candidates and their viewpoints at a regularly scheduled monthly Albany Republican Assembly meeting, with president Sam Dows, presiding.

On Wednesday, May 17, at the Cornell School cafeteria, beginning promptly at 8 p.m., candidates seeking office in the 17th Assembly District, the 7th Congressional District, and the County Central Committee, have been invited to speak.

The candidates will outline their attitudes towards tax reform, death penalty, ecology, no-fault insurance, drugs, welfare, school financing, regional government, reduced government spending, and other important issues.

A "straw ballot" will be taken at the end of the session, to determine the preferences of those present, and refreshments will be served.

Final plans will be announced by Assembly Vice-President Jerome Blank, for the cocktail party scheduled for Friday, May 26, from 6 to 8 p.m., at the home of Larry and Helen Baum, 1049 Ordway, Albany.

Candidates will also be present at this get-acquainted social affair, and there will be musical entertainment and refreshments.

CHURCH NEWS

What determines an individual's worth? What makes someone really worth knowing?

These are questions to be explored in a public lecture to be given in Berkeley on May 26, by Miss Jessica Pickett, C.S., of Chicago.

Miss Pickett will speak at 8 p.m., under the auspices of Second Church of Christ, Scientist, in the church auditorium, 1521 Spruce Street. Title of her lecture will be "You're Someone Worth Knowing." Local church members have invited the public to attend without charge.

Dr. and Mrs. Tucker N. Callaway have been reappointed and assigned to service in Liberia, Africa, by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board.

Dr. Callaway is presently pastor of Gracepoint Baptist Church in Albany, and his wife teaches Remedial Reading and Life Sciences at Dewey Continuation High School in Oakland.

They will be resigning these positions soon, with expectations of arriving in Liberia around the middle of July.

Dr. Mark W. Lee, president of San Francisco's Simpson College, will be the guest speaker at both services this Sunday at Albany's First Baptist Church.

Subject for the 11 a.m. service will be "Hunters," and at the 7 p.m. service he will discuss "Forgiveness."

Dr. Lee is widely known as a speaker all over the nation. In addition to speaking engagements, he has been the featured speaker on several Christian radio broadcasts, including the Simpson Songfest, which is currently heard on a series of stations from coast to coast.

Deacon John Wadsworth will conduct tonight's Mid-Week Service at the Albany First Baptist Church, 1319 Solano Ave.

The service will commence at 7:30 p.m. in the Social Hall of the church building.

The Rev. A. E. Syverud, new Pastor of Christ Lutheran Church at 780 Ashbury Ave., El Cerrito, will be in the pulpit for the first

'Happy 25th' For the Vilas

A very special surprise party was given by Joey, Richard, and Linda Vila, and Linda's fiancé, Lee Felice, to celebrate the 25th wedding anniversary of the young people's parents, Henry and Edith Vila.

Mrs. Vila had returned from an extended trip to Seattle, Wash., British Columbia and other parts of Canada, Washington, Oregon and Nevada.

One hundred guests were invited to the Sunday, May 7th buffet dinner, which was prepared by Edith Vila's only sister, Mrs. Frank Cervillo and her daughter, Linda.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Frank L. Washburn and her son-in-law, Michael B. Cockett, from Honolulu, Hawaii; Frank L. Washburn, Jr., and Gail De Bow, from the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Wash.; and Wayne T. Washburn and Jean Marksie from Foothills College in Los Altos.

Many other relatives and friends were in attendance from Palo Alto, Hollister and the Bay Area.

Mr. and Mrs. Vila had taken an out-of-town guest for a long boat ride on the Bay, and returned home in the late afternoon to a gathering of their friends and relatives waiting to celebrate the occasion.

Among the gifts presented to the honored couple, was an unusual pair of leis, each made of 25 pure silver dollars, taken from the private collection of the Washburns, and flown here from the Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Vila are planning a trip to Las Vegas as a climax to their 25th wedding anniversary.

Charities Appeal

The annual Catholic Charities Appeal in the Diocese of Oakland will be voiced on Sunday, May 21, when priests in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties urge their parishioners to support the private, voluntary health and welfare activities of Catholic Charities by pledging an hour's pay per month.

The program of Catholic Charities range from the care of small children to aiding the Downtown Senior Citizens. Only two of their agencies, St. Vincent's Day Home for Boys and Girls, and the Catholic Social Service, receive financial assistance from the United Bay Area Crusade, and these funds are restricted to operation.

time Sunday, May 21, at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services. Holy Communion will be celebrated at both services.

Sunday School and adult classes at 9:45 a.m.

Homes Sought

Children's Hospital Medical Center in Oakland has announced a need for temporary living quarters for out-of-town parents of acutely ill children who are hospitalized in the Oakland hospital.

Social service worker, Nancy Colbert, notes that motels can be very lonely for troubled people, and she is seeking those who would be willing to share their homes temporarily with families who need an extended hand of friendship in a strange city.

Those willing to open their homes may set their own rates, and include board if feasible. Ideally, the homes would be on a bus line, but as many of the families have cars, locations somewhat distant from 51st and Grove Streets will be welcome.

For additional information, or to register your home, contact Miss Colbert at 654-5600, Ext. 329.

An Organic Gardener Speaks

By J. J. Skilling

For a riot of color in your garden, try planting hardy marigolds, stock and nasturtiums. These flowers are easy to grow and if not kept under control, will flourish like weeds.

Marigolds will grow quickly and easily, even in a poor soil. Plant seeds 1/4 inch deep into the earth on a warm day and in a sunny location. You can expect the seedlings to emerge in 2 to 3 weeks. Be careful with the water as continuous overhead watering will cause the brittle stems to snap. Try a fine light spray early in the day. The marigolds are an excellent cut flower and should last 7 to 10 days in the house if the bottom leaves are cut off and do not contaminate the water.

Stocks are more effective if planted in large groups. The seeds should be set into a light, fertile, well drained soil. If the soil does not crumble readily, prepare your soil by adding calcium. Try 1/2 level teaspoon of gypsum per square foot of soil 7 inches deep. Adding the gypsum will not change the pH. The stems of the stock plants will rot if the water collects in pools at the base of the plants.

Nasturtiums do not transplant well and so it is wise to plant directly into the pot or garden area where you desire the flowers to grow. A medium to dry soil and a sunny location is needed for the best results. Set the seeds 1/2 to 1 inch deep and firm them in. The seeds should be about 10 inches apart. The sweet odor of the nasturtiums will attract the hummingbirds just as a cup of warm tea, set in the garden, will attract the bees.

The above flowers are annuals and for easier handling of the seeds, try a pair of eyebrow tweezers. Adjust seed quantities to suit the need and germination. I suggest planting 3 times as many seeds as you want plants. Then thin, selecting the best plants.

When watering plants in containers, don't use a heavy concentrated stream of water. The steady stream creates holes in the soil and exposes the roots of the plant. A fine spray distributes the water evenly. Also, remember your trees as you water

Lifesaver Heart Booklet Offered

Heart Sunday volunteers in Albany received a leaflet from the Heart Association on some of the basic facts about how to deal with heart emergencies. The pamphlet, called "This Is Your Heart Saver," was so popular with the 240 volunteers in the Albany door-to-door drive the Heart Association has decided to offer copies to anyone who inquires.

Mrs. Arthur Afanador, Heart Sunday chairman for the Albany area urged the Heart Office to obtain enough copies for wider distribution and now suggests that readers of the Times write for their copy.

This leaflet could be a real lifesaver, according to Mrs. Afanador. She said that it contains a section on how to reduce the risk of heart attack, what to do in case of heart attack, a place to fill in emergency telephone numbers, and descriptions of first aid with rescue breathing. The leaflet, she added, is illustrated with attractive, easy to understand drawings.

Send a postcard or letter to the Alameda County Heart Association at the nearest of its two offices, 4171 MacArthur Boulevard, Oakland, or 37177 Fremont Boulevard, Fremont.

your garden. The network of roots look for water and can create trouble as they tunnel through the earth in search of the needed water.

For rhododendrons, camellias and azaleas needing soil acidification you might try 2 tablespoons vinegar to a gallon of water. Soak the entire root area and repeat every 3 months.

If you have had seedlings die from fungus disease, sometimes referred to as damping-off, you can use the above solution to avoid this trouble. Slowly pour the solution through the prepared soil and allow the soil to rest 48 hours.

When using steer manure for your vegetable plants, remember that salt is often in the steer manure. If too much steer manure is used, the salt content may prevent or reduce seed germination or damage the roots and growth of plants. Limit the quantity of steer manure to about 5 or 6 cubic feet of soil.

Try planting mint and sage in the vicinity of your cabbage plants. The mint and sage will help to keep the cabbage moth away from your cabbage and Brussels sprouts.

Vandalism Bills

Each year hundreds of millions of dollars of damage to public and private property is caused by senseless acts of vandalism. Damage to such public institutions as schools, libraries, parks, rapid transit systems and housing authorities, both increases the cost of their maintenance and deprives the public of additional facilities or services which could be provided with the funds presently used to finance repairs and replacements.

Because of this, California Assemblyman W. Craig Biddle, at the request of Attorney General Evelle J. Younger, has introduced in Sacramento four proposals aimed at curbing this vandalism.

They are: A.B. 1085, which requires the Department of Justice to develop community involvement programs to reduce acts of violence against public and private property. It would appropriate $30,000 for the act.

A.B. 1086, would define malicious mischief as vandalism and change the present penalty of misdemeanor for committing malicious mischief to a misdemeanor or felony, for committing vandalism, depending on the dollar amount of injury or damage.

A.B. 1087 would authorize the state to pay a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons damaging or destroying state property. It would make a person damaging or destroying the property liable for the reward, and would make his parents also liable if he is a minor.

Assembly Bill 1088 would impose any act of willful misconduct of a minor which results in an injury or death to another person, or in any injury to the property of another, to the guardian of such minor, as well as to his parents. It raises limits of the joint and several liability of a minor and the persons having custody and control of him for such willful misconduct from $1,000 to $10,000.

PROPER TREAD DEPTH
What is the simplest way to check your tires for proper tread depth?

With the help of a Lincoln penny, points out the National Automobile Club, you can do the job yourself. Just insert that penny upside down into the tread groove and then watch closely for the top of Lincoln's head. If it becomes visible in two or more adjacent grooves, you know that you have a faulty tire on your hands.

Since such a tire can be dangerous, better not procrastinate its replacement. Get a new tire now.

DRIVING TIP
Always drive carefully, advises the National Automobile Club.

Acorns Aid Handicapped

Last month was an eventful month for the Acorns, the group which was organized in 1956 to find creative ways for the handicapped to use their leisure time, as well as to give them the opportunity of meeting and making new friends.

The group, which is co-sponsored by the Berkeley Committee on Recreation for the Adult Physically Handicapped, Inc., and the Berkeley Dept. of Parks and Recreation, meets each Thursday at Live Oak Recreation Center, to enjoy a variety of projects, including arts and crafts and bridge in the mornings, and afternoon programs of entertainment such as music, slide presentations, book reviews and lectures, under the guidance of Miss Margaret Van Boven of the Parks and Recreation Dept., who is program director.

The Acorns are a truly community oriented group, and as such have received much support from local organizations in the way of volunteers, transportation and financial donations.

One of the Acorns most recent projects involved the preparation of Easter baskets for the young occupants of Snedegar Cottage, the Alameda County facility for the temporary care of children during periods of domestic crisis. This is an annual project for the Acorns, and this year they made bean bags and finger puppets to fill the baskets.

An announcement has been made that facilities and transportation will accommodate a few more members. Any physically handicapped adult, 18 years of age or older, interested in joining the Acorns should call 848-1474 for further information.

Red Cross Plans Annual Meeting

The Berkeley-Albany Red Cross Chapter will hold its 58th annual meeting, a luncheon, on Thursday, May 18, at Hs Lordship's restaurant on the Berkeley Marina. The public is invited.

During the social hour, starting at 11:15 a.m. a safe-boating demonstration, arranged by Joan Campbell, director of safety programs, will be staged in the waters outside the restaurant windows. A similar performance provided for last year's luncheon proved to be such a delightful and exciting entertainment that a repeat of the event was inevitable.

Judge Joseph Kennedy of San Francisco will be the honored speaker for the occasion.

Luncheon will be served at 12:15 p.m. Reservations at $3.75 per person may be made by calling the Berkeley Chapter, American Red Cross. Reservations should be made before May 15.

Holiday Camping

There are only 10 days left before the big three-day Memorial Day weekend, and anyone planning on camping at a State Park along the southern or central coast, had better check with their nearest Ticketron terminal and get a reservation made right away, or they may find themselves without accommodations.

This word of advice comes from State Parks Director William Penn Mott, Jr., who explains that many of the popular coastal campgrounds, and a few of the inland ones, have already been spoken for by advance reservations, and the remaining ones are filling up fast.

"In fact," Mott added, "these same parks are already beginning to fill up for the second big summer holiday—the Fourth of July weekend. Your best bet, if the state park of your choice is already filled, is to try the inland parks and those along the north coast."

Reservations for state park campgrounds may be made up to 90 days in advance (especially for holiday weekends), or as late as Monday for the following weekend (regular weekends), at any of the 160 Ticketron terminal outlets located in stores or businesses throughout the state.

To learn the location of the terminal nearest you, please call San Francisco, 692-2921.

Park Permits Available Now

Summer — which means boating, swimming, fishing, hiking, and picnicking to millions of Californians—is just around the corner, and if you haven't already done so, you will want to pick up your annual day-use permit and a boat-launching permit for units of the State Park System.

The permits sell for $10 each, and are good until the end of 1972. They offer unlimited use of day-use and boat-launching facilities at most State Park units.

The day-use permit may be used anytime at any state operated park, where the regular daily parking and day-use fee or 25-cent walk-in fee is charged. It is not good, however, for camping or boat-launching at State Parks operated by an agency other than the State, or at State Historic Parks, monuments, or museums where a separate entrance or tour fee is charged.

The boat-launching permit may be used anytime at any State Park boat-launching facility, in lieu of the regular $1 boat-launching fee. This includes launching facilities operated by concessioners, except for those at Lake Elsinore State Recreation Area in Riverside County.

The permits are available at most state parks, or can be purchased by sending a $10 check or money order for each permit to the Reservation Office, State Dept. of Parks and Recreation, 1416 Ninth St., Sacramento, Calif. 95814.

On Honor Roll

Pamela Fellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Valli of Albany, and former Albany High School graduate, has been named to the Honor Roll of Armstrong College in Berkeley.

Pamela is working toward her Bachelor's Degree in Marketing, and is married to a fellow Armstrong student, William Fellman, who has been selected as one of

Pre-school Spring Activities

The spring semester at Thousand Oaks Baptist Preschool has featured myriad activities including field trips, preparations for an art exhibit, and addition of new staff members, reports Mrs. Peggy Meissner, Director.

Mrs. Shirley Lockwood of Albany is currently directing a music program for the preschool children featuring simple songs and rhythms. Mrs. Lockwood studied music at the University of California and has been active in music and little theater groups in this area. Mrs. Heidi Hartford of Kensington has recently started assisting the staff as a teacher's aide.

Field trips for the preschoolers have included a bus trip down Solano Avenue to visit the Albany YMCA during a recent school study unit on transportation. Mr. Dean Ballard, Executive Director of the Y, guided the children in the proper use of many types of gymnasium equipment.

Art work by the children of the preschool will be exhibited at the Kensington Library, 61 Arlington Ave., every afternoon beginning May 15. The preschool has a unique art program directed by Mrs. Mary Ann Whaley of Berkeley. Mrs. Whaley has previously conducted art programs for the Kensington Nursery School and the Junior Center of Arts and Sciences in Oakland. The exhibit is titled, "A Child's Eye View," and features the preschoolers' current experiences with monoprints, sand casting, wood glue sculpture, mosaics, yarn decorations, fingerpainting, watercolor, collage, melt art, colored chalk, and crayons.

Cooking and tasting experiments have been guided by teacher Mrs. Glenna Seely of Kensington. Mrs. Seely has a background of 12 years experience in working with preschool age children. Thousand Oaks Baptist Preschool is a private, non-sectarian school which accepts children without regard to race, religion or ethnic origin. The school's enrollment includes children from Albany, Berkeley, El Cerrito, Kensington, and Richmond. Mrs. Meissner, Director, announces the school is accepting enrollment for the fall semester. Visitation to the school are welcome by appointment. For information, Mrs. Meissner may be called at 5227 (home) or at 526-3771 (church office).
